

Bellerbys - Bellerbys IELTS Express

Intensive preparation for the IELTS exam

This course is ideal if you:

- are aged 17 or over
- need to improve your IELTS score before going to a UK university or joining a Bellerbys College course, or during a break in your academic year

Intensive preparation for your academic studies

Our intensive stand-alone language course can help you improve your IELTS score by up to two full points as quickly as possible. It is a six-week course which starts in July each year. You can join the course if you need to improve your IELTS score prior to joining a Bellerbys academic course or prior to joining a university in England.

You will need the following IELTS levels to study these courses at Bellerbys College:

- Extended Foundation - 4.0
- GCSE - 4.5
- Foundation - 4.5
- Masters Qualifying Programme and Pre-Masters (two term course) - 4.5
- Masters Qualifying Programme and Pre-Masters (one term course) - 5.5
- A Level - 5.5
- Diploma in Business and Management - 6.0

Universities in the UK typically require students to have an IELTS of around 6.5.

Small class sizes ensures fast progression

You will study for 25 hours per week including academic English and study skills. You will be assessed by a mock examination every two weeks to ensure you are on track. At the end of the course you will take the IELTS examination, for which there is an additional.
