Accommodation at Bellerbys Cambridge

Where you will live in Cambridge

When you are away from home, it is important to feel safe, comfortable and happy. We take great care to provide a high standard of accommodation. You can choose either the flexibility of our student residences (known as College House) or the supportive atmosphere of a host family (also known as Homestay). Whichever you select, we will ensure you feel at home.

College House Student Residences

We provide residences of the highest quality at each of our four campuses. Our facilities are more than just a place to stay. Living in a Bellerbys student residence will give you a sense of independence. You'll be part of a stimulating international community where you can comfortably live and learn.

College House options at Cambridge

'Standard College House' provides a single room accommodation with a wardrobe, desk and shared shower and toilet facilities. Most rooms also have their own washbasin.

All other 'College House' options include ensuite bathroom facilities.

Homestay

Staying with a host family allows you to share in the daily life and experiences of a British family and immerse yourself in British culture.

Homestay provides:

- Comfortable clean homes which are regularly inspected
- Safety and security assured
- Welcome and supportive host families
- A choice of single or shared rooms
- A fully equipped study bedroom
- Two meals per day
- Access to a telephone to keep in touch with home

Homestay Options

Standard Homestay is suitable for older students who are confident of living relatively independently, but with the support of a caring home environment.

Homestay Plus families provide a higher level of support and supervision for younger students and is compulsory for students under the age of 16.

Both Standard Homestay and Homestay Plus are available at each of our centres.
