Spanish and Latin dance music is famous and popular all around the world.

In this programme, Malaca Instituto provides you with the chance to improve your Spanish and learn to dance either Sevillanas (Flamenco) or Salsa (and other Latin dance forms) with other like-minded people.

Content, method and teachers

Malaca Instituto is a highly serious school that produces its own textbooks. Our Research & Development department is responsible for the creation of these books, other teaching materials and the associated training of our teachers.

The textbooks and materials vary according to the type of course, the target student and the course objectives. In the case of Spanish & Dance the Spanish language element is our standard Intensive Course which aims to teach all areas of the language at each student's specific level.

Intensive Spanish Course: We have an eclectic method integrating the direct teaching of grammar with the development of skills, vocabulary and oral fluency using the "communicative approach". It is suitable for all levels and our students tell us this method is extremely effective.

The teachers all have substantial experience in teaching Spanish. Regular workshops and training sessions are organised to ensure that the teaching remains of the highest quality and is always lively and interesting.

Dance: Our dance teachers are professionals with considerable experience in teaching dance, in choreography and in performance. They aim to teach about the dance forms as well as the actual steps.

Malaca Instituto is a renowned teaching centre that can boast the independent quality guarantees associated with being an Accredited Centre of the Instituto Cervantes, having passed the inspections of the University of Alcalá (CEELE) and EAQUALS and being a member of IALC and OLE.
